

Roads and Bonds

The great question of roads in Virginia has again been placed before the people of the State by the Good Roads Association and the Association of the State by the Good Roads Association. The House of Delegates tried to forestall the action of the association and by a large majority went on record as being opposed to any bond issue this session. The good roads people assert that the State can take care of a small bond issue without increase of taxes and that that is the only way to get the roads in shape. ## The high school here with its excellent corps of teachers and its splendid student body is doing a fine work and the largest number of graduates will finish the high school course here this time in the history of the institution.

Professor Henry C. Groseclose has been offered a position at Blacksburg, and if he accepts the students in the agricultural department will give him up with feelings of regret, as he is very popular.

The State law requires the schools in the counties to run an average of seven months and it requires that 20 per cent of the teachers salaries be paid out of local funds. Many of the counties are heavily in debt and to require the schools to run for a longer time than available funds will pay for only increases the indebtedness and unless the present legislative session some plan of relief is adopted it will seem that the schools will have to be closed in many counties.

Justice Huntley has been appointed to represent himself as a judge on this circuit for another term. Many men have lived to see their 84 years and many men younger than he have come here to practice law and have passed away. We congratulate our honorable old friend.

The subject of the sketch died at the home of his daughter in the city of Norfolk, last Thursday. Deceased was a native of Appomattox county and was held in high esteem by a large number of friends here who will regret to hear of his death. He lost his sight eight years ago and had been living with his daughters, Miss Ruth and Mrs. Carrington. The night before the crash he was struck on the head by a horse and recovered. His remains were interred Saturday at the cemetery, attended by a large crowd of friends and relatives.

Death of Mrs. Daniel P. Ferguson

Mrs. Nannie G. Ferguson, seventy-six years old, wife of Daniel P. Ferguson, died rather suddenly at her home in Appomattox county, January 20, 1922, after a long illness, and was buried in the family burial ground on the home place, yesterday evening at 3 o'clock. Funeral services were conducted at the home and grave by her pastor, Rev. H. Parrott. She was a devoted and active member of the Baptist church and many beautiful floral designs evidenced the love and esteem of those who knew her. She is survived by her husband and six children: E. M. C. J. A. and R. H. Ferguson, and Mrs. E. W. O'Brien, all of Appomattox, and Mrs. Addie Morris, of Lynchburg; also forty-five grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Mrs. Ferguson was born in Appomattox county, July 15, 1845, and was married to Daniel P. Ferguson fifty-five years ago, and had been a member of the Baptist church for sixty years. The deceased was the last of a family of sixteen children, born of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Abner Ferguson, who departed this life many years ago. With the passing of this good woman, her family has lost a tireless and devoted wife and mother, the community one of its most beloved and useful neighbors, her church one of its most devoted members.
